John 21:19 and 22 stresses the importance of the call to follow Jesus.

How does that impact your life? What does it speak to your heart personally? How will you respond to that call?